Planners schedule sidewalk repairs

At a meeting of the Antioch Planning Commission, discussions and recommendations, in preparation for the agenda of next week's board meeting, mainly dealt with sidewalk and gutter repairs, storm sewers and preliminary plans.

AFTER APPROVING a recommendation from the police committee that Holbek Dr. be closed for the Fireman's Dance on June 28, the commission went into a lengthy discussion on the whys and wherefores of the needed sidewalk and curb and gutter replacements.

The area that the discussion dealt with specifically was the 106 feet on Lake St., between the Vault Restaurant's driveway, westwards to the next driveway, in front of Johnson's Jewelers.

After bandying about some ball park figures on the removal and replacement of these sidewalks, curbs and gutters, with a mention that the jewelers might be interested in a 50-50 proposition on the cement apron in front of the store, Mayor Michael Haley recommended that bids be taken on the project.

After the commission agreed that they might as well finish the sidewalk and curb repairs that are needed throughout the village, Haley asked that a program on these proposed repairs, based on a 50 per cent village funding and the rest paid by the property owner, to be readied for Monday's board meeting.

Vern Barnstable asked if the village would be interested in property owned by Don Blackman.

Haley said that this would be decided on in executive session.

Barnstable also reiterated Blackman's request that the village put in a 60 foot storm sewer in the area between the North Avenue Mall and the Joanna Court Apartments, starting at a manhole and extending to the property's outer most northern end.

Haley said, "We shouldn't pay one cent on that sewer, those things were agreed upon when the building permits were issued."

"That's why he's talking to you instead of me, he knows I know better," he continued.

Haley asked that a meeting on the matter be set with Blackman.

Complaints were heard on the chicken coops located on North Ave., referring to the reported danger of children playing. Haley was informed that they were boarded up and recommended a check into these problems.

The question on the legality of the fence at 320 North Ave. was raised and was answered affirmatively.

The Planning Commission also recommended that the property owned by Mr. and Mrs. L. Petersen be annexed and the topography waived, if the Petersens could produce an engineering contract, promising that the topography could be taken when the weather conditions were right. This contract must also provide for building on this lot within the year.

After a discussion on the possibilities and feasibilities of cable tv coming to Antioch, the board went into executive session.

Summer school, flouride possible grade programs

The Antioch Grade School board of education met June 3, and heard from Supt. Donald Skidmore that there have been many inquiries about summer school. According to him, it has been about 10 years since the last summer school was offered, "there is an interest shown to start the program again."

"I'm investigating the possibility of starting a summer program once again," Skidmore said, "by surveying parents to see if it's feasible to make a plan for next year."

Previously, the state funded summer school, but when the funding stopped, Antioch discontinued offering it. "When the school started charging a fee for summer programs, parents evidently lost interest. I will try to develop a self-supporting plan for the board to consider for next summer, if the interest is there," Skidmore stated.

THE FEE FOR THE summer school could be between $4-6 weekly, and transportation would probably be available. Programs that were focussed on in the past included reading and math, and one program that got good response, according to Skidmore, was a typing class. "The program would not only be developed for remedial students, but also for enrichment purposes," Skidmore concluded.

The board advised the superintendent to seek information on the possibility of starting the program again.

The board also discussed the possibility of adding to the dental program that grade school youngsters have participated in in conjunction with the Lake County Health Dept. Currently, high school students work part of the year teaching youngsters the proper care of their teeth, again in conjunction with the health department.

The new program would consist of a flouridation treatment, one of the most effective ways of preventing tooth decay, according to dentists. "Parents would be asked to sign a form stating that their child can participate in the program," Skidmore said. "Children would rinse their mouths once per week with a flouride solution," he added.

IN OTHER ACTION, the board voted to raise the payment of a substitute teacher from $32 to $35 per day, and also to keep the prices of lunch at the same figure since 1974. A hot lunch will be 60 cents, while a reduced lunch is available for 20 cents, milk, including two-percent, five cents, and adult lunch for 90 cents.

Also, the Antioch Upper Grade School will be getting a new librarian, as it has been operating with non-certified personnel. Cathy Moore has been hired to fill the position and has a BA in Library Science. She has teaching experience and also worked as news librarian for the Waukegan News-Sun.

Moose boasts top ballplayers

Antioch Moose Lodge Baseball team won Sunday, June 8, with a score of 13-8 against the McHenry Moose Lodge, which had been undefeated at a 3-0 record.

Exciting defensive plays from the Antioch players such as Mika Perrone and Larry Denzel, plus fine hitting from the rest of the players led the team to victory.

Antioch Moose baseball team is shooting for their third consecutive league title and their third round robin tournament. No other team in the Third District has ever won two years in a row.

Next league game is against Waukegan, June 22 at the Antioch Upper Grade baseball field, at 1 p.m.

Our Rotary plays host

Members of the Antioch Rotary played host to people from all over the world on June 3, as they welcomed over 100 people traveling by bus from the international Rotary convention held in Chicago. This year's convention held in the Windy City, was also the celebration of the club's 75th anniversary of foundation, which just happened to be in Chicago too.

The mood of the cocktail event held at the home of Bill Barr, was very festive. The visitors arrived an hour late, but everyone was friendly and truly seeking to share ideas and customs from their home countries.

Individual Rotary members then took guests to their homes for dinner, and the conventioners departed for Chicago at about 10 p.m.

INSURANCE INFORMATION

We just had our Homeowner's policy rewritten to cover 80% of current replacement costs. However, I don't understand how the policy will pay in the event of partial damage. Can you explain?

Yes. This is another important case for insuring your home for at least 80% of current replacement costs. With this coverage, in the event of a partial loss, you will receive the full cost of replacing or repairing the damage... up to the policy limits. However, if your coverage is less than the 80% level, the insurance company will compute your payments through 1) figuring the percentage of replacement costs based on the ratio of the coverage you have purchased compared to the 80% coverage you should have purchased and 2) the "actual" cash value (the amount it would take to replace the property less a deductible). The insurance will pay the larger of the two amounts but with less than 80% coverage you will certainly end up paying part of the repair costs yourself.

Troop 92 welcomes new Scouts, activities

Antioch's Boy Scout Troop 92 welcomed seven new Scouts at the Scout House on May 27. The new Scouts include: Thomas Durell, Dale Gade, Roger Green, Jeff Nottingham, Richard Ruck, Robert Stecher and Mark Carpenter.

Judging from the troop's recent activities as well as future events, the new Scouts will have a lot to look forward to. In May the Scouts and their leaders collected over eight tons of newspapers and 100 pounds of aluminum cans as part of a recycling and fund raising project. The troop thanks Antioch area residents for their contributions. Another paper and can drive is planned for the fall.

Thanks to troop treasurer

Gordon DeBoer, 10 Scouts and six leaders toured Commonwealth Edison's coal generating plant in Waukegan. Not only was the tour an enjoyable and educational experience, but also it will count as part of the requirements for earning the President's Environmental Youth Award.

John Aschbacher, a senior at Antioch Community High School, received Scouting's highest award, the Eagle, at a ceremony at the Moose Lodge. ACHS Superintendent Warren Polley read the resume, Matt Willems read the charge, and Steve Wapon, ACHS head football coach, gave a short address.

In the troop's final event in May, Scoutmaster Bernie Dost led the troop in An-tiotch's annual Memorial Day Parade.

Troop 92 looks forward to its summer events. During the June 13 to 15 weekend, Scouts and their leaders will attend the annual Camporee at Camp Sol R. Crowne, Wis. This year's theme is "Conservation: Scouting's Way."

Paul J. Hettich is one of two Scouts from the Lakes Area District who will be on staff at Northeastern Council's annual Troop Leader Training Conference from June 17 to 27 at Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan, Wis.

Troop Scouts and leaders are preparing for their annual two week camp-out.

This year the troop will pay its first visit to Camp Owassippe near Muskegon, Mich. The huge Scout reservation promises many opportunities for fun, adventure and advancement.

Retail committee makes plans

The retail committee of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce met on Monday to discuss the upcoming downtown events: the Art Fair, July 13; Maxwell St. Days, July 31, August 1 and 2; and Moonlight Madness, August 28.

The problem of the participation of merchants who have not paid their dues to the Retail Group was brought up.

The dues are used for the advertising promotion of these events and to purchase a blanket license, allowing the retail merchants to place their goods on the street during them.

In years past many stores have taken advantage of the crowds that attend the Retail Group's promotions without paying their share.

Committee Chairman Laddie Korecek, of the Antioch Savings and Loan, said that they would discuss remedies for this situation with the village.

Sandy Seigmeir, of Four Squires, suggested that they look into borrowing a popcorn machine to make more money at the future promotions to offset the Retail Group's small budget.

Korecek and Seigmeir also decided to look into making downtown sidewalk space available to outlying merchants who might want to participate in Maxwell St. Days and Moonlight Madness.

Well, Antioch was the scene for an internationally good time when the Rotarians hosted Rotarians from all over the world last Tuesday. There was a welcoming into town at the home of Bill and Edna Barr, as two busses arrived a little bit past the time that was scheduled. It's okay, though, as it gave Rotary members and their wives a little bit more time to relax and munch on the delicious snacks the Barrs offered.

The Rotary's International convention was held in Chicago this year, and clubs all around the Chicagoland area hosted a portion of the Rotarians to give them an idea of the many different surroundings.

Too bad the Mayor couldn't stick around, though, but you know how those Tuesdays are. If you don't, just ask Trustee Mabel Lou Weber...

Guess who got a perm at the village hall? I'll give you one clue, she's the treasurer...Looks real nice too!

Anybody wanting to participate in the father of the year contest should get their essays in to the Chamber of Commerce and Industry office in Antioch. June 12 is the absolute deadline for entries, and many businesses have contributed toward prizes.

Also coming up with the Chamber is the arts and crafts fair to be held July 13. Booths are still available through the Chamber office.

Don't forget the general membership meeting to be held June 24. Members should be receiving information in the mail, so don't forget to make reservations.

Antioch Parks and Recreation is still planning many summer activities for folks of all ages. There are two family nights scheduled, one for June 26 and one for July 4. As far as I know, plans are still being made for an "old fashioned atmosphere" and all sorts of fun contests and activities are being planned.

There will be a Miss Antioch contest on the 4th, and the winner from that will represent Antioch at the Lake County Fair and could possibly represent Lake County at state fair queen competition. Applications are available through Glenda or Dee at the parks office, and they would be happy to answer any questions.

Those of you living close to the downtown area must feel like you're on a California vacation with all those tremors caused by the streets repairs.

For those of you who've ever been offered a penny for your thoughts or you others that are always willing to contribute an opinion for two cents, it looks like the State Bank of Antioch is doing you one better.

It seems that suddenly some of our money is worth more than face value. The State Bank has a limited offer of a dollar for every 85 pennys brought in.

Time to search under the sofa cushions, dig into the bottom of your purse, and crack open those piggy banks.

Unrein, Hinz, Krahn receive Lions outstanding awards

An enthusiastic group of parents, coaches, sponsors and Lions Club members attended the 39th Antioch High School athletic banquet on Tuesday, May 27, in the high school cafeteria. The special banquet is sponsored annually by the local Antioch Lions Club honoring all the senior athletes, the most valuable in the 17 sports, all individual state qualifiers, senior cheerleaders, color guard, pom pon and senior marching band members.

The gathering was rewarded by a very interesting and informative presentation by Joey Meyer, the assistant coach of the famous DePaul Blue Demons. Young Meyer related many interesting stories about the Blue Demons basketball team. These stories and yarns were tied to the important facets of life and how hard work, determination and desire can pay dividends not only in athletics but in life day by day.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Stephen Williams of the United Methodist Church of Antioch. Athletes and guests were welcomed by Lions president, Paul Eckert, with Greg Bies, "A" Club president, responding for the various athletes. Mr. Polley, school superintendent, and Mr. Blecke, principal, made introductions of several guests. Special athletic introductions were made by Mr. Lear, athletic director.

Special recognition was given to the individual state final qualifiers for the year. These were: Diane Appelhans in bowling, Suzanne Harrison in swimming, David Unrein in wrestling, and Jon Gibson in wrestling. It was indicated that this was Gibson's third time down state and he finished second in the state at 119.

Lion president, Paul Eckert, with the assistance of Lion Bill Seeman, made the most valuable awards to the various sports winners as they were announced by athletic director, Ward Lear. The following most valuable athletes were introduced and recognized: spring '79, Scott Schroeder, baseball; Tom Parpan, track; Roger Korjenek, tennis; Kathy Ogden, softball; Carrie Corso, track; fall '79, Bill Witek, golf; Denis Flaschner, football; Robert Otten, cross country; Beth Mueller, field hockey; Patricia Hinz, volleyball; Margie Allen, tennis; Carrie Corso, cross country; winter '79-80, Jon Gibson, wrestling; Ron Nauman, basketball; Jill Levoe, bowling; Tracy Manuel, basketball; Tracy Ernstmeier, gymnastics; spring '80, Tom Bernet, baseball; Mike Pramshafer, track; Stu Short, tennis; Shelly Wix, softball; Carrie Corso, track.

At the conclusion of the awards presentation, the nominees for outstanding senior cheerleader, senior boy athlete and senior girl athlete were introduced. These senior awards were established in memory of James J. Walsh, a former Lions Club member and Antioch Community High School board member.

The nominees for the senior awards were as follows: senior cheerleader, Donna Coles, and Dawn Krahn; senior girl athletic, Kathy Oddsen, Shelly Wix, Jill Levoe, Diane Otten and Patricia Hinz; senior boy athlete, Mike Pramshafer, Jon Gibson, Dan Behne, and Dave Unrein. The selections for the outstanding awards as determined by the selection committee were: cheerleader Dawn Krahn, senior athlete Patricia Hinz and Dave Unrein.

Alumnus guests at Allendale graduation

Friday, June 6, saw the uniting of the old and the new at the Allendale School in Lake Villa as Allendale celebrated its annual graduation ceremonies in the Farwell Chapel.

The commencement speaker, Howard Grafman, a 1942 graduate of the school, challenged this year's graduates to seek a better understanding of themselves, of the world around them and to set and obtain goals as they go through life. Grafman spoke with authority on this subject, as after leaving Allendale and going on to graduate from Northwestern University, he became involved in communications, and is currently president of Century Broadcasting which locally owns FM 100 and WAIT radio stations.

Grafman was introduced by Gail Way, also an Allendale alumnus from 1934. Way currently is a special education instructor in Chicago.

There were sixteen Allendale graduates this year, thirteen from the on-campus school and three from Lake Villa Intermediate School.

A special highlight of the day's activities was the recognition of many years of service to the youth of Lake County by the Honorable Minard E. Hulse, who was awarded an honorary life trusteeship to the Allendale board. Judge Hulse, who has served on the Allendale board for many years, was a prime mover in the development of the juvenile court system in Lake County, and served on the committee to develop the framing for what is now known as the Dept. of Children and Family Services for the State of Illinois.

His involvement in community life is far-reaching from his activities in the American Legion to the Lions Club to his involvement with the Happy Day Day Care Center. In recognition of his outstanding services, the new youth home in Waukegan was recently named in his honor.

Allendale deems it a distinguished pleasure in having the opportunity to recognize Judge Hulse on this day as an honorary life trustee.

'The Hollow,' for mystery fans

The PM&L Players ended the 1979-80 Season 19 with the Agatha Christie murder mystery, "The Hollow", and as the season has progressed, so has the length of the yarns that the company has chosen to present.

Technically, the cast and crew did a superb job in taking the audience on a search for the killer of a member of a love triangle, but the play, that ran just a little under three hours, is definitely for the mystery or Christie fan.

The three-act mystery takes place in the late 1940's over a period of five days. The English setting is in the garden room of Sir Henry Angkatell's house, the Hollow, which is about 18 miles from London.

THE PLAY BEGINS with the arrival of weekend guests to the Hollow. Dr. John and Gerda Cristow are visitors from London, and are played very strongly by D.H. Martin and Dee Baum; Edward Angkatell, arrives from the Angkatell estate in the country, and is played by Bruce Stamm; and Midge Harvey, also visiting from the city, is played by Tracy Teltz Kiederlen.

Host and hostesses are Sir Henry, portrayed by George Blanksten, the absentminded Lady Angkatell, played by Ricky Apostol, and Henrietta Angkatell, played by Pat Sershon.

MAKING APPEARANCES throughout the play were the Angkatell butler, Gudgeon, played by James Bishop; a maid, Doris, played with just the right English accent by Dee Baum; and Dr. Cristow's former lover, now Hollywood star, Veronica Craye, played affluently by Victoria Tolash.

Carrying the play through the detective sequence with overwhelming authority were Donald Beveroth, who portrayed very believably the Scotland Yard Inspector Colquhoun, and Robert McKee, who added some humor by boasting about his success in obtaining information from maids, played Detective Sgt. Penny.

Everyone is suspect in the murder of Dr. Cristow that takes place on the day after the guests arrive. Cristow is having an affair with Henrietta because she understands the technical passion for his work, while his wife insists that he is a doctor to help humanity.

The investigation weaves from suspect to suspect and even the audience is caught in trying to see who has the better motive for the killing.

THE STRONGEST acting performance in the play, directed by Bill Sershon, would have to be Stamm's portrayal of Edward, the very to-himself, but interesting, country man. Blanksten portrayed Sir Henry in a fitting fashion, while Apostol made the audience laugh with her part as the absentminded lady of the house.

Sershon's part as Henrietta shouldn't go uncomplicated as shouldn't Kiederlen's portrayal as Midge.

PM&L's season closes with the closing of the murder case, and in any case, avid mystery fans will enjoy the plot.

The play will be running for two more weekends, June 13, 14, 21 and 22 at the theater located on Main St. in Antioch.

Hahn's wins in dark

Highlights of Antioch boys senior league action included an exciting 14-13 win by Hahns in a game called because of darkness after six innings.

John Humphreys was the winning pitcher and John Sillanoff the loser for the State Bank.

Collecting singles for the State Bank were Sillanoff (2), Mike Evans, Graig Pranthier (2), and Gowercki (2).

Leading hitters for Hahns were Frank Mahar with a triple and single, Stan Dyer with a double and single and Joel Bissing, Andy Lehn, Humphreys and Jeff Johnson with singles.

The game was a see-saw battle with the winning run scored on a single by Jeff Johnson of Hahns scoring Kevin Kovach.

Hahns also defeated the advertiser as Jeff Johnson got the win and Humphreys the save in a 10-7 win. Ed Silva was the losing pitcher.

Stan Dyer, Andy Lehn, Humphreys and Mahar had doubles to lead the Hahn attack and Dyer, Lehn, Humphreys, Mahar and Rick Gossman had singles.

Chuck Duha had a double for the advertiser and singles were tallied by Derrick Olson, Brian Becker and Nordstrom.

The game also was highlighted by a triple play when in the third inning Becker flied out to John Mahar of Hahns in center field for the first out. Mahar then made a line drive throw to catcher Andy Lehr who put the tag on Chuck Duha who had tagged up after the catch. Lehn then ran down Ed Silva who attempted to go to third. Silva was tagged out by Bissing.

Hahn's notched its third win with an impressive 4-1 win in a game marked by excellent pitching by both teams. Tony Evans of Hahns gave up only three hits and three walks, while Tom Adams of Limmerick gave up five hits and five walks. Andy Lehn had a double for Hahns and Limmerick had only three singles.

Cardinals still undefeated

The Little League Cardinals, sponsored by Galdine Electronics defeated the Tigers by a score of 7-1 to capture their third win of the season against no losses.

Tom Kane pitched a brilliant game, yielding only one unearned run and allowing one infield hit by Joe Backochin in the last inning to collect his second victory of the season.

The hitting attack was led by Mike McGrain, Matt Gall, Garry Hammond with doubles, while Keith Hairrell added a run scoring single.

The Tigers made good contact but against the Cardinals' defense led by Matt Gall at short, Bart Behling at second Dan Hieselman at first and Jason Johnson at third, stymied the hard hitting Tigers. Eckert was the losing pitcher.

Record setter Gibson signs at Louisiana

Louisiana State University wrestling coach, Larry Sciacchitano, signed Jon Gibson, a top-flight wrestler from Antioch, to the Tiger wrestling team.

Gibson graduated June 8 from Antioch High School and was coached by Ted DeRousse. His high school record was 150-19-3, a Illinois state record for the most wins in a high school career. He also set a Illinois high school record with 81 falls in his four year career.

Gibson was a three-time high school state qualifier and was runner-up in the Illinois State Championships this past year in the 119 pound weight class. In 1978 he placed fifth in the 98 pound weight class.

To add to his accomplishments, Gibson was a three-time district champion, a three-time sectional champion, two-time Lake County tournament champion, and was champion of the 32 team Rich South tournament in 1978.

Late models return to Lake Geneva

The late model stars and cars of the traveling ARTGO Racing circuit will return to the Lake Geneva Raceway on Tuesday night, June 17, for their second annual 100-lap contest on the paved one-fourth mile oval.

Last year's ARTGO special drew a record stock car crowd and even more are expected this year as the date has been moved to Tuesday night making Lake Geneva's special the only late model stock car race in the Midwest that evening.

Gates will open at 5 p.m. with qualifications at 6:30 and the first late model race at 8.

Advance reserved seats are on sale at the Raceway every Saturday and Sunday night before the big special. The raindate will be June 24.

Heading the field is defending ARTGO champion Dick Trickle of Wisconsin Rapids, Wis. Trickle finished second last year at Lake Geneva behind fellow townsman Mike Miller who copped the century grind.

Also entered for the June 17 date is Dave Watson of Milton who set a new one-lap track record in the ARTGO events last year at Lake Geneva and who finished third after the 100-laps.

Out-of-state entries are headed by two-time American Speed Assn. (ASA) champion Mark Martin from Batesville, AR. Martin currently leads the ASA 1980 point standings on the strength of a win in the SuperAmerica 150 race at the State Fair Park near Milwaukee.

Tuesday's race makes for an interesting match-up between Martin and Trickle, who currently leads the ARTGO 1980 standings. Trickle has won three ARTGO features so far this year.

The Lake Geneva Raceway is located just south of Lake Geneva at Hwy. H and Bloomfield Rd.

The track's weather phone is 414-248-8566.

Weekly racing continues every Saturday and Sunday night.

Views On Dental Health

By ROBERT J. PAULETTI, D.D.S.

FETUS FACTS

If you are a typical mother, don't ask where you went wrong if your infant is a thumb-sucker. You are completely innocent. Medical pictures of the fetus show that many babies are already well into the habit of thumb-sucking by the seventh month in the uterus. In fact, all kinds of preparations are going on before birth to get baby's mouth ready for its complex tasks. Moreover, more bottle-fed babies suck thumbs than the breast-fed infants.

Did you know that teeth are already beginning to form in the growing fetus three months after conception? Indeed, some parts of the 20 primary teeth, (also called baby teeth) can be recognized at this early stage. Even tiny pieces of the first permanent molars are growing. The rest of the permanent teeth wait until right after birth to start forming inside the gums. Sometimes, shortly after birth, parents or physicians may notice little white spots on the upper palate (roof of the mouth). These are little keratinized structures (keratin is a tough, fibrous protein found in nails, hair and teeth). They are not significant and normally will disappear in 10 to 14 days.

A public service with the aim of promoting a better dental health environment. From the office of: ROBERT J. PAULETTI, D.D.S., Route 1, Antioch. Phone: (312) 393-1363.

New program for rental owners at Antioch Savings

The home rehabilitation program, in which Antioch Savings and Loan Assn. has recently become a participant, has been expanded to include another project sponsored by the Lake County Housing Authority. This project could benefit persons owning rental properties that are now substandard or in need of major repairs.

Under this new rehabilitation program, qualifying individuals who own rental property may obtain funds from Antioch Savings and Loan on a conventional home improvement loan basis. The rehabilitated property then becomes eligible for rent subsidies in turn provide a source of repayment for the loan.

While other rehabilitation programs do not yet include the immediate Antioch area, this new program for rental property owners is now available, and Antioch Savings and Loan is pleased to be a participant, according to Laddie Korek at the institution.

Bruce Adams, vice president of the assn. stated, "The directors and officers of Antioch Savings are committed to supporting the village of Antioch and the surrounding community and assisting whenever possible to make it a better place to live."

Rental property owners interested in obtaining additional information on this rehabilitation program may contact Adams at Antioch Savings and Loan, 395-3030 or call the Lake County Housing Authority direct at 949-2299.

FLAGS

Gov. James Thompson directed that all flags be raised back to the peak at noon on Friday, May 30. The governor had directed that flags be flown at half-staff in Illinois to honor the eight men who died in the Iranian hostage rescue attempt. Initially it was intended that flags remain at half-staff until the hostages were returned.

Where can you pick?

Illinois consumers will be able to save money this year while getting fresh produce by picking their own fruits and vegetables at a number of U-pick farms throughout the state, said Bob Schmerbach, Lake County Extension advisor.

Many U-pick strawberry fields are in good condition and, with good weather, berry quality and yield should be good, added Schmerbach.

Consumers interested in picking their own can locate U-pick farms in 1980 Pick-Your-Own-Fruits and Vegetables directory. This 25-page booklet identifies farms in the north, central and southern regions of Illinois. The farms are listed by nearby towns with directions on how to reach each farm. A telephone number is included.

To insure that produce is available, it is advisable to telephone before visiting any of the farms. Picking hours vary and some farms are closed on Sunday.

Free copies of the directory are available from the Lake County Extension office or by writing Larry Alday, Illinois Department of Agriculture, Emmerson Building, Fairgrounds, Springfield, Ill. 62706.

The woman behind the Antioch man

by GLORIA DAVIS

The first profile in our series of stories on the gals who stand behind, and work beside, Antioch's prominent men, naturally is that of Sue Haley, the village's first lady.

Sue Smith was born and raised in Antioch, attending St. Peter's grammar school and Carmel high school.

A lovely, blond high school girl, who couldn't have looked much younger than she does now, she met Mike Haley at a basketball game.

And six months later they were married on July 11, 1970. Having been a receptionist and switchboard operator for a company in Mundellien, Sue then embarked on a full time homemaking career that now includes one of being mother to the two Haley children, Jennifer, 9, in fourth grade at Antioch Grade School and Megann, 4.

She does step back into the business world once in awhile, however, when she is needed at the family business Haley Brothers Cleaners.

When I suggested that her picture be taken working in the kitchen, Sue laughed and said, "Anybody that knows me would know that wasn't the real me."

When asked what she does with her rare spare time, she talks about her rug hooking, bridge playing and occasional "playing at golf."

What's it like being married to the mayor: SUE SUMS it in two words, fun and hectic.

"It's hectic," she says, "because there are so many social obligations, almost one a week."

Has Mike's official capacity changed their way of life drastically:

"Mike was on the board for four years before he ran for mayor," she says, "so the change wasn't that drastic when he was elected."

"When he first decided to run for the board, we talked it over and I told him to go ahead since that was what he wanted to do."

"We both love it, the constant going, the people, even though it does get a little hard sometimes," she reports.

"Mike makes it a lot easier though because he's so even-tempered and considerate. He always gives me plenty of notice when something's going on," she continued.

Does the family of a busy businessman and politician see very much of him?

"Mike spends a lot of time at home," Sue says.

"We live so close to the business, he's often able to come home for lunch. He's probably gone no more than any other man, actively involved with an organization, she said.

The Haley's took their first vacation last year when they went to Las Vegas.

What about the upcoming campaign for the April election: Remembering four years ago, Sue's already gearing herself for the political whirl.

A woman's place

When I think about it

Summertime comes in all kinds of sizes

By Gloria Davis

June is busting out all over and a lot of us are discovering that she's not the only one, as we try on last year's white jeans, shorts and bathing suits.

For some of us, the long winter's corn poppings, and the gey menus from all the holiday parties, have taken their toll in straining zippers, popping buttons and gaping seams.

HEY FELLAS, is your V-physique beginning to resemble a pyramid?

Do you gals dread shopping for any of the new shiney, clingy summer clothes at the nearest Ample Annie or Generous Genny boutique?

Are you tempted to don large sunglasses, a wig and a trenchcoat, worn unbelted of course, and drive two states away for your season's shopping, so no one knows what size you're into?

WELL IF you guys don't want to spend all summer wearing over-sized, loose fitting, outer shirts, that vainly try to hide the effects of mom's baking prowess, and unless you gals intend to spend the season pretending that you just returned from Hawaii and are enamoured with those tent-like mums, though it's a little late: there are only two things to do.

First understand; realize and resign yourself to the fact that, for awhile, you simply can't eat any of the foods you like.

If you're over 35, you'll probably never be able to allow those tummy favorites to tempt your palate again.

IT'S THE easiest diet I know of. No counting, no listing or measuring, and only one rule to follow: if it looks good, smells delicious and tastes divine, you can't have it!

Now to the second desperate "de-pigging" measure. Exercise. This is the season when exercise can be fun and games.

Try jogging through town and don't let the gapers bother you. Don't let your imagination run faster than you are by thinking that the tune your neighbor was whistling, as you jogged over his petunias, was the "Too Fat Polka."

Try a little tennis and until you're no longer embarrassed by the way you bulge out of your tennis shorts, try playing at night at a court that doesn't have lights. A little luminous paint on your tennis balls is all you need.

IT MIGHT be a good idea, during those first few muscle tightening weeks, to boat out to the middle of the lake and swim, unseen, out there, since neck to ankle bathing suits aren't "in" this year.

If none of these suggestions appeal to you, maybe you can spend a little time in front of the bathroom mirror, swinging a shiny object to and fro, repeating over and over, "Fat is beautiful."

Hang some placards around the house that say, "Fat is where it's at," or

Welcome back home to Russ Fairchild

Editor's Note: Russ Fairchild regularly shares his thoughts and observations while strolling through Antioch with our readers. Although his strolls were brought to a temporary end when he suffered a broken hip, Russ is back strolling through Antioch, presently with the help of two canes. The following is his report.

by RUSS FAIRCHILD

Thanks to Annie Mae for the recent mention in her column of my return to the old haunts, via a walker

(now two canes) from Reeves Drugs.

Yes, it's great to be around again in a town I love so much, and the people in it, that have been missed for so many months.

It was a real pleasure to step into John Katris' Las Vegas Restaurant on Main St. and be warmly greeted by hostess Carol Moll, George Boyd, Swede Petersen and so many others of the early morning breakfast club. Everything pleasant and cheerful, as I remembered it. Like old times.

Then slowly wending my way down to the Vault where owner Jim Roupas, hostess Connie Dominas, Big Bill Walker and one of Antioch's finest patrolman Harold Mason were on hand to welcome me.

Reluctantly leaving these fine folks behind, I shuffled west on Lake St. to George Katris' Lakeside Restaurant, where the likes of Russ Creager, Ida Wysoglad, Cele Rodney and Jim and Linda Curtis were assembled. At last I could thank them all in person for their thoughtfulness.

Just as I intended doing the same across the way at Franklin's Pantry where the 'over the hill gang' revived itself daily, with hostess Marge Settee, Diane Swanson, the Drosen's, Evy, Agnes, and too many to mention. All okay here.

Well, it soon came to pass, that something new had been added to the scene during my absence, Wanda's Westaurant on Toft Blvd., where Wanda and Super Chef Harold officiated. I was elated to find Mo Cunningham, Marty Lasco, Carl Pachay, among others, enjoying the cuisine and cozy atmosphere, as I did. (Caution — step down as you enter).

Now for the next few stops on my agenda, I'll definitely need wheels, as at present, my poor legs and canes can't maneuver efficiently to reach Nick and Frank's Beehive on Rte. 173, where hostesses Donna Barth and Breeze and cashier Adeline Goodrich, keep patrons like Jim Fields, Bud Holtz, Frank Recupido and Hank Malone buzzing.

For this then, both uncle John Christensen and Russ Creager volunteer, and make solo trips with yours truly, while I make my thanks.

Then shortly west to Tuffies, where hostess Hanna Hogan serves Ralph Caffarella of Antioch Laundromat, Chuck Hogan, Pete Pearce and others.

Still on the outskirts of town, west on 173 in Channel Lake, is Vi's Yellow Bird, where our nice neighbor Elsie Quedenfeld was kind enough to drive Ginger and myself for our appreciation visit.

"Hot Nuts" Ron the polka great, and Betty Newer were among the greeters, we were due at Vi's for New Year's Eve, so this was a belated event.

During my convalescence, I also heard from quite a few wonderful members of the Loyal Order of Moose Club, so that when we stopped in there recently, Yep — we did it. Ginger and I joined the Antioch Lodge No. 525. Our sponsor was none other than Fred Beckman, also known as clown 'Mr. C', and 'Oliver Hardy.'

Making us welcome was the popular Governor, Scotty Lowe and Recorder Norma Lowe. In the hall was that lovely pair from Piggy Bank, Ray and Rose Dunaj; Ralph and Ruth Gussarson; Genial Host Carl Gulbransen; Jim Horan; Ray Kapp; Postman Will Gers and Louise Gutowski. Ken Knackstedt, famous clown of Moose Lodge, was also present.

The next night, May 31 was the Hobo Dinner-Dance with music by the Jolly Knights. Pretty Hostess Dorothy Laursen, saw to everyone's comfort and pleasure, as did Recorder Judy Page.

Fred Beckman amused the guests with his unique, hobo attire and mannerisms with tiny toy dog 'Spot.' ... and this is how it was, on our pleasant introduction into the Moose Lodge.

So, to all of you kind friends, and there's still a few of you left to greet, (a pleasure I'm looking forward to) please be of good spirit ... and till we again meet ... on the beat — keep on counting your blessings — I do.

QUESTION: WITH MOST OF THE CANDIDATES ELIMINATED, IF THE ELECTION WAS THIS TUESDAY, WHO WOULD YOU VOTE FOR?

SHIRLEY GUTOWSKI, Antioch, "I think that Ronald Reagan has the most to offer. Age has nothing to do with it, it just gives him a lot of years of experience to offer."

DICK RADKE, Antioch, "I'm anti-Carter, we need a new administration, so I guess its Ronald Reagan."

SHARON DABBERT, Lake Villa, "Carter isn't doing anything, Kennedy is too much for the minority groups, so I'd vote for Reagan."

JOHN McNEILL, Antioch, "I don't care for Carter, I don't like Kennedy and Anderson's a liar, so that leaves Reagan. If Bozo were running, I'd probably vote for him."

200 attend Antioch Trust Co. seminar

Nearly 200 individuals attended an estate planning seminar sponsored by the Antioch Trust Company. The program, held on June 2, at the Windjammer Restaurant, was entitled, "Wills, Trusts and Probate — Money Saving Techniques". Paul T. Pavelski, president of Antioch Trust Company stated that the overwhelming response to the program reinforces the fact that residents of the northern Illinois counties desire information on how estate taxes and probate expenses can be minimized.

In addition to Pavelski, the speakers included Donald S. Flannery, a Libertyville attorney with the firm of Overholser, Flannery & Hoover. He discussed why a will is necessary and the benefits of a land trust. Timothy H. Osmond of Osmond Insurance Agency of Antioch, discussed how insurance can be used to pay and save death taxes. A Chicago attorney, Harold E. Collins, of Harold E. Collins & Associates, Ltd. spoke on how to retain a family farm or business and save taxes.

JANICE KOCH

Koch's art on display

Antioch Savings and Loan will have the paintings of Janice Koch on display in the lobby of the association through July 8.

Mrs. Koch has just recently taken up painting after retiring as a secretary to raise a family. She lives in Twin Lakes with her husband and their two-year-old son, and devotes her spare time to painting in oils. A self-taught artist, her paintings depict landscapes (done by palette knife), mountain scenes, still life and wildlife.

Antioch Savings and Loan features a different artist's work each month and invites the public to visit the lobby and view the arts and crafts of talented people from our area.

Anyone desiring additional information about the arts program may contact Ladie Korecek, public relations director, at 395-3030.
